The Jesus Book

Name:

Presence Group:

Date:

DUE DATE: THURSDAY, AUGUST 30

BOOK: THE JESUS BOOK BY MICHAEL KOULIANOS

ASSIGNMENT:

Write an original report of what you've gathered from the assigned book. Make sure the essence of what you're writing covers, but is not limited to:

- ❖ What the author is saying?
- ❖ Why the author is saying it?
- ❖ How and why will you apply it to your life?

Please engage thoughtfully and meaningfully with the information you've read. We expect you to dig in and wrestle with the content from The Jesus Book. Reflect on what you've learned, how the book impacted you, what questions you have come up in you while reading, and conclusion your coming to in light of the material. Write what you've uncovered.

FORMAT:

1000-1500 words, 1.5 spacing, stapled, with 12-point font. Please include a cover page with your title, full name, presence group leader and date. Word count is required at the bottom of the last page.

VISION TO PONDER:

Michael's vision for the reader is that they become completely convinced that loving Jesus is the highest calling. That the Presence is Jesus Himself. In journeying through these pages that you would receive a general conviction that this is all about Jesus. The vision and following questions are intended to stir your thoughts for writing:

- ❖ How have you ministered to Jesus' heart as you've meditated on the pages of The Jesus Book?
- ❖ As you have been stirred in the heart of the Lord, what do you think you should do to steward a personal response to Holy Spirit's prompting?
- ❖ How have you learned to cultivate His Presence? How have you cultivated a relationship with Jesus?
- ❖ Pursuing the heart of Jesus takes vulnerability in exchange for personal intimacy with Jesus. Did this challenge you in any way? Please describe.
